'Holiday'

What good is it to me if this eternal birth of the divine Son takes place unceasingly but does not take place within myself?

And, what good is it to me if Mary is full of grace and if I am not also full of grace? What good is it to me for the Creator to give birth to his/her Son if I do not also give birth to him in my time and my culture?

This, then, is the fullness of time: When the Son of God is begotten in us. ~ Meister Eckhart

We have focused on the miracle-thing and I think we often overlook the message of Hanukkah. To me, the core of the holiday is the cleaning of the temple. . . The accomplishment was in restoring the temple to the purpose for which it was built. Now think of the temple as a symbol. Perhaps it represents my life. The world has tried to use me for its own (perhaps good, but none-the-less extrinsic) purposes. But now I can rededicate myself to my own original purpose. ~ Ralph Levy.

Now we come to the culmination of 2010. The holiday season is many things. It is a time of celebration with family and friends; it is a time of honoring of the great spiritual traditions; and it is a test of how we grew during the year. This is not just because of the test of family gatherings! In late November to early December the Hindus celebrate Yama Dhamstra or the time of Lord Yama, the God of death. More people die in this time of year than any other. So we may be tested to see if we have made progress in understanding the nature of reality enough to gracefully release loved ones and friends.

The fact that each year cycles through the same seasons is interesting from a spiritual point of view. In the Inner Self there is no time and therefore no cycles. So the repetition of cyclic energies happens at the level of mind, or what we call 'ego.' It is as though we need to repeat certain stages of life regularly so we can draw out the lessons they have for us. I suppose some lessons are more difficult than others and we want to 'take the class again.' In our teaching we read and hear about the Perennial Philosophy regularly. God is an indwelling state of being that is beyond the ego. God feels like peace, and sweetness. Yet we do not get this quickly, in the sense that we find it difficult to live this day to day. So we reintroduce these ideas to our own minds repeatedly. This is an important way of learning, but it must be used with discrimination. There is such a thing as the 'eternal student' complex! It is almost like wanting to be a child forever so Mom and Dad can continue to take care of us. For many people social and cultural structures play the same role. We go on to college where some join clubs or fraternal organizations that act like extensions of family complete with principles and iconic leaders. Others are attracted to gang involvement which is psychologically still an extended family. Usually we break out of these womblike structures eventually, but the pattern of seeking 'just one more class or group' persists. Even churches and religions can be viewed in this way.

Truly speaking all of this is a desire to extend the time in which the ego is in control. Most of us in Religious Science know all we need to know about spiritual matters. What we need is to break through the 'time barrier' and accept the truth now. For Truth is only true now, in this instant. Rev. Scott Fogelson used to say so well – 'You will never be more God than you are now.' But the ego wants to wait – until it understands more or until it feels better or ... This is stubbornness and is one of the most defeating and invisible parts of our mind.

So the great beings, many of whom we focus on in the holiday season, tell us clearly to adopt the attitude of 'the Father and I are one.' Dr. Ernest Holmes put it this way: 'God in me, as me, is me.' A corollary of this concept is that every day is a Holy Day. No matter whether we have lost a dear friend or are feeling the cheerful glow of the festival of lights, it is all God. It is all a projection of our innermost being. Yes, even the relatives we don't get along with and the commercialism of the season! It is all the play of the inner Self.

Please join us to celebrate the Truth of Now this holiday season at our Candle Lighting Service on Christmas Eve and our Burning Bowl Ritual on New Year's Eve.

Happy Holidays,

Bill

Treasurer's $ Corner

At the 2006 Annual General Meeting a suggested weekly donation of $26.00 per person was stated in order to cover the costs of PCC. If we add an inflation rate of 17% to this it would equal about $30.00/ per person.

At the 2010 AGM I talked about what I see when I open the donation envelopes. It ranges from Power Bars to large donations. After listening to Edwene Gaines' (Aug. 29 speaker) concept of gifting 10% to my spiritual sources, it motivated me to look at some of the other purchases that I make. I noticed that I pay $60 per month for my Global wireless device, $75 per month for my cell phone, $80 per month for Dish and Netflix. Do these things serve my Ego or my spiritual sources? I have decided to increase my donation to PCC from $60 per week to $75 per week.

My intention in sharing my thoughts about my own giving, is to stimulate your thoughts about reviewing your own giving. A wise professor of mine once said, "Show me your checkbook and I'll show you what you value."

Blessings,

Dale Hillard, Treasurer, PCC Board of Stewards.

Dr. Marc Gafni

The purpose of this article is to share with our beloved friends at PCC, the enlightenment teaching of Unique Self. The following article is from my forthcoming book: Your Unique Self, The Future of Enlightenment which is about to come out. Sally Kempton and myself will be honored to share the deep application of this teaching in your life in our upcoming series of workshops.

This teaching is radically re-visioning our realization of enlightenment even as it is an evolutionary unfolding of the oldest teaching of the Kabbalists and Hindu mystics.

What do we mean by unique Self? Your Unique Self is not merely ego or personality. It is the essence that lies beneath and beyond your personality. More precisely, it is the personal face of essence. It is the unique god-spark living in you and as you. Your Unique Self is the infinite love intelligence which is all that is living in you, as you and through you.

Unique Self is revealed and realized throughout your life, in moments of flow and grace, regardless of your level of consciousness. Yet it is only after you have learned how to move past the grasping of your separate- self-ego, and realized your nature as indivisible from the infinite, unqualified field of consciousness, that Unique Self is revealed as a full and stable realization.

In other words, there's a process involved. You first realize that you are part of the seamless coat of the universe. You then realize that the universe is seamless but not featureless and that you are one of its essential features. You see that you are irreducibly Unique and therefore irreplaceable as a unique expression of all-that-is. You realize that your personal existence, your being, is utterly distinct, worthy and needed.

Unique Self is the enlightened realization that you are both absolutely one with the whole, and absolutely unique. You are free from the contractions of your personality, even as you experience yourself as personally engaged in the great evolutionary unfolding of consciousness.

You are God's verb. To be God's verb, you do not need to leave your small self-ego behind. You only need to leave your identification with your small self-ego behind.

Realizing your Unique Self will fundamentally change the way you understand virtually every facet of your awakened life. Once we've engaged the core teachings of Unique Self, we will look separately at how these teachings fundamentally reconfigure our understanding of love, joy, shadow integration, sexuality, parenting, death, relationships, loneliness, evolutionary spirituality, malice, ego psychology, and the integration of east and west. You will see that the revolutionary emergent of Unique Self dramatically re-visions and evolves your understanding and practice in each one of these critical arenas of your life.

Your Unique Self is God's love-signature written all over you. God loved you so much, He personalized Himself as you. You are the individualized heart and mind of God. This is your Unique Self.

The creative process that mysteriously moves from nothing to something is the God impulse.

Go click on the green line! pacificcoastchurchpg.org

To live as your Unique self means to align yourself with that process, with the ecstatic evolutionary impulse that initiated the cosmos, with the ecstasy of God, which recreates all of reality in every second of existence.

Are you ready to respond to this invitation, to offer yourself to the infinite love intelligence that wants desperately to show up in the world through and as you?

Then keep on reading...

Being God's Verb

The God you do not believe in does not exist. By God I mean All that Is, in all of its infinite and personal faces — the love beauty that initiated and animates all that is. That love beauty wants to see with your eyes, touch with your hands, and love with your heart. Big Heart, the Tao, the Great One, the Universal Mind — by whatever name — wants to come into its fullest expression of being as each and every one of us. For this to happen, you have to be willing to hear the call of the evolutionary impulse of the Cosmos beating in you and as you.

You are God's verb. To be God's verb, you do not need to leave your small self-ego behind. You only need to leave your identification with your small self-ego behind. You will then be able to identify with the unlimited and unfathomable mind of God, coming into its own by manifesting through and as you.

Are you tired of feeling trapped in the maze of your own self-contraction? Of being a side effect in your own life? Are you tired of your constant reaction, which creates your constant contraction? Are you tired of feeling like little more than a living cluster of habits and pre-conditioned reactions? Are you tired enough to surrender finally and fully to your Unique Self?

Or are you here to survive in your physical body? I hope not, because you will not.

Or to get rich or get famous. I hope not because, as mama said, "You can't take it with you."

You are here to be the poem that only you can be. You are here to sing the song that only you can sing. You are here to be the Unique Presence of Being in the world that no one else but you can be. To live aligned with the highest intention of God, allowing God to live you.

God is Having a Marc Experience:

When I live my Unique Self then God is having a Marc experience. When my oldest son lives his Unique Self then God is having an Eytan experience. The same is true for you. When You live your Unique Self God is having a You experience. God is devastated when Marc instead of living the great mythic story of Marc, tries to be John or Robb.

This causes what the kabbalist call "the Exile of God".

The great realization of western mystical consciousness is that God 'desires' to have a Marc experience. Something is evolved in the God head when you live your Unique God spark by incarnating your Unique Self.

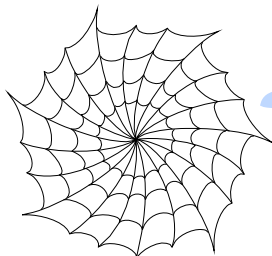

Reveal yourself. Manifest your mystery through your Unique Self.

Junior Church

Every Sunday at 10 a.m. with Brooke Cole and Janie Lundy

Brooke — I love this time of year, for it seems the path is so clear... Just after turning the 2/3 mark on the calendar we are given guidance to begin reflecting (Daylight Savings Time). As we continue our reflection, we find ourselves pleasantly surprised (Halloween) by the abundance of just what we needed having shown up this year in our lives. As we enjoy the bounty of what we have attracted to us, we become evermore grateful, counting our blessings (Voting day) and giving thanks (Thanksgiving). As the gratitude in our hearts increases, we feel evermore whole as we come to realize there is more God than we could ever imagine (Christmas). With this joyous realization, we are born anew (New Year's), so we may continue the journey of Self-discovery with a renewed sense of wonder! In this way, we remain forever young!

Looking for the fountain of youth? Come join us in Junior Church this season as we celebrate life and the journey of Self-discovery through the eyes of children!

So Much Love,
Brooke

Janie — As the crisp Autumn weather sweeps into our sweet coastal hamlet, we gather closer in body, heart and spirit. Junior Church always harbors warmth and light with the easy, fresh energy of the many children who come together weekly to experience and celebrate our Oneness. Every week, their voices, like their self-esteem, grow stronger as they rest in the sacred space of loving community. My heart overflows as I watch them share their stories and experiences with one another, as the light pours forth, as they learn how to hold and honor one another's inner beings as their own.

We continue to explore powerful stories from the Mind Shop, including the beautiful concepts of Byron Katie, Wayne Dyer and Louise Hay. The older children really enjoy taking turns reading the pages out loud, and we all enjoy the colorful illustrations and heart-lifting messages put forth by these wonderful teachers. It is no surprise to these young beings that our thoughts create our realities, and that first, we must find peace and love within ourselves before we realize it all around us. We also explore many innovative yoga poses, as well as the traditional asanas. Recently, we learned firsthand about EFT, Emotional Freedom Technique, which entails gently tapping on acupuncture points to energize and clear the body's meridians (energy channels) while speaking affirmations. I am filled with deep gratitude to share this precious time with such gorgeousness! Please come down and join our sacred circle whenever you wish (free CD of Dr. Bill's talk provided in Mind Shop following service)!

Love to all,
Janie
